SEAPORTS - NOTIFICATION OF SIGN-ON

Migration Act 1958

- This form is required to assist Australian immigration entry and control as processes as prescribed in the Migration Act 1958 and the Migration Regulations.
- This form is to be lodged with Customs and Border Protection as early as possible - at least 24 hours prior to the actual sign-on of the crew / spouse / dependent children listed - excluding weekends and public holidays.
- Failure to advise Customs and Border Protection in a timely manner may result in processing delays, the agent / master must liase directly with Customs and Border Protection to determine details of where / when sign-on and clearance activity will occur.

We require this information to enable us to conduct appropriate Immigration and Customs checks prior to crew signing on vessels. The information provided may be disclosed to the following Government agencies: Department of Immigration and Citizenship, Australian Quarantine Inspection Service, Australian Federal Police and the Attorney Generals Department.
