

AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMS DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2006/45

Pineapple juice concentrate

Exported from Thailand

Expiry of anti-dumping measures

Anti-dumping measures applicable to pineapple juice concentrate and pineapple fruit prepared or preserved in containers exported from Thailand were initially imposed in October 2001 following Ministerial consideration of Trade Measures Report No. 41.

On 1 December 2005 the Australian Customs Service (Customs) published a notice in The Australian in relation to the expiry of those anti-dumping measures. That notice invited those persons as specified at section 269ZHB(1)(b) of the Customs Act 1901 to apply to Customs for the continuation of the anti-dumping measures by 30 January 2006.

Customs received an application for the continuation of anti-dumping measures applicable to pineapple fruit and following a continuation inquiry recommended to the Minister for Justice and Customs (Minister) that the anti-dumping measures continue after the specified expiry date. Customs findings of the investigation are detailed in Trade Measures Report No. 110, which is available on the Customs website at www.customs.gov.au.

The Minister accepted Customs recommendations and decided to secure the continuation of the anti-dumping measures applicable to pineapple fruit prepared or preserved in containers exported from Thailand. Notice of the Minister's decision was published in The Australian on 10 October 2006. ACDN 2006/43 refers.

As Customs received no application for the continuation of the anti-dumping measures applicable to pineapple juice concentrate, the anti-dumping measures applicable to pineapple juice concentrate exported from Thailand will expire on 17 October 2006. Therefore on and from that day anti-dumping measures will no longer apply.
