

AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMS NOTICE NO. 2007/34

Notices of Objection to Importation Copyright Act 1968

The Copyright Act 1968 allows the owner of the copyright, or the exclusive licensee, to object to the importation of goods that infringe copyright. The owner of the copyright, or the exclusive licensee, does this by lodging a Notice of Objection with the Australian Customs Service (Customs). Unless revoked, a Notice of Objection remains in force for a period of four years from the date of commencement.

The attached Schedule sets out the copyright owners, and exclusive licensees, who have lodged a Notice of Objection under the Copyright Act 1968 since February 2007 (ACN 2007/09). The Notices notify the objections of the copyright owners, and exclusive licensees, to the importation of goods that infringe their copyright. A description of where copyright is claimed is also set out in the Schedule.

A detailed list of all current Copyright Notices of Objection is available at www.customs.gov.au/site/page.cfm?u=4497.

Goods identified by Customs at the border as potentially infringing copyright are liable to be seized by Customs unless it can be established that:

- the goods are being imported otherwise than for the purposes of trade (sale, lease, hire, etc); or
- the goods do not infringe the copyright.

People who have been intending to import goods that may be liable to seizure under the provisions of the Copyright Act 1968 should consider seeking advice from Customs, or a suitably qualified legal practitioner, as to the implications of the copyright legislation.

Copies of the relevant Notices of Objection have been forwarded to the Customs office in the capital city of each State and Territory. Importers, or their advisers, who require further information regarding the Notices of Objection, or Customs' role in respect of those Notices, should contact the Customs Information and Support Centre on 1300 363 263 or the Intellectual Property Rights Group on (02) 6275 6577.
